20 Percent Increase in Business at Antioch Post Office This Year

Christmas Rush Was "Terrific", Postmaster Roy Kufalk Reports

"It's terrific," was the comment of Postmaster Roy Kufalk as he sized up this year's business at the Antioch post office.

Kufalk estimated that cancellation and sale of stamps will exceed any previous year by about 20 percent.

Thirteen workers including Postmaster Kufalk himself worked feverishly last Saturday at the time of mailing was at its peak. This didn't include the four rural carriers and their four assistants.

The Antioch Rescue squad building was used this year again to take care of the overflow business, mostly bulky parcel post.

"The increase in outgoing mail including parcel post was about equal to the increase in incoming mail," said Kufalk, which gives testimony to the fact that an increase in mailing was general throughout the Midwest.

Business began tapering off Monday and by tomorrow will have slowed to a walk, with only a little local mail being handled.

The office will be closed both Sunday and Monday, the legal holiday. Postmaster Kufalk said that a few might work Sunday night dispatching late mail, but that the postal department has ordered as little work as possible so that employees can be at home with their families.

Business at the postoffice usually reflects business in general in Antioch.

Walter Milichevich, 64 Dies of Heart Attack at Home in Lake Villa

Funeral services for Vlado (Walter) Milichevich, 64, were held Monday at the Strang funeral home. Mr. Milichevich died at his home Dec. 15. He was born October 28, 1891 in Yugoslavia, and came to America at the age of 14, settling in Chicago, from there he moved to Hillcrest Farm at Millburn in 1945 and for the past year had lived at Lake Villa. He was a member of the Millburn Congregational church. He did maintenance work at St. Therese hospital.

He is survived by his wife, Selma and three daughters, Mesdames Mildred Holton, Tampa, Florida; Dorothy Thompson, Eglin Air Force Base, Florida; and Helen Duncan of Round Lake, and six grandchildren.

Services were held at 1 p. m. Monday at the Strang funeral home. The Rev. L. H. Messersmith officiated. Interment was in Montrose cemetery, Chicago.

Firemen Want Holiday Calls Social; Not to Extinguish a Blaze

Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen and his staff today appealed to the residents of the Antioch area to exercise extreme care during the next two weeks in preventing fires.

The extra use of electric wiring, the inflammable Christmas trees, and the general overloading of electric wires at a time when daylight is shortest, all are conducive to fires, Simonsen warned. It is best to have some kind of extinguisher handy.

"We don't mind calling it if it is social, but we certainly don't want it to be a fire call," he said.

The firemen extinguished a grass fire on land east of the Soo Line tracks which caught from the village dump. Five acres of grass burned. Fortunately the wind was in a direction that slowed the flames.

"Had it been in the other direction we would have had difficulty in stopping the fire before it reached Little Silver Lake," Simonsen declared.

Capt. Herman Holbek of the Antioch Rescue Squad hopes that Sunday will be one Christmas that he will be able to have dinner with his family. For the last three years Rescue Squad calls have taken members away from their meals and families. There have been no calls during the past week, and Holbek and his men are hoping this situation will continue.

Frosh-Sophs Split Even In Weekend B.B. Tilts

The freshman-sophomore basketball team of Antioch High School broke even in its games last weekend.

The underclassmen beat Glenbrook here Friday night 49 to 31, and then lost to Fenton there Saturday night 39 to 38. The loss at Bensenville was a tough one because Antioch led all the way until the last minute of play. The score at the half was Antioch 25, Fenton, 13.

Fenton made but one field goal in the last quarter, but made 12 foul goals.

Large Crowd Attends Christmas Concert at Antioch High School

A large crowd attended the Christmas concert given Sunday afternoon by the music department of the Antioch Township High School.

The school band, the cappella choir, the girls' glee club, and the school chorus joined in presenting under the direction of Louis Chenette a varied program of Christmas music. Accompanists were Diane Domek and Maureen O'Haver.

At one point in the program the audience led by Charles Watson and the Methodist Church choir sang carols.

The program reached its climax with the combined choruses singing the Hallelujah Chorus from the "Messiah" by Handel.

Following the concert a reception was given to the public in the girls' gymnasium.

This annual event is always popular in the community.

Food Chain Has Yule Gift Plan

You can serve a Christmas dinner or any of its courses, to your faraway friends and relatives this year via an ordinary letter envelope and the U. S. Mail.

Gift certificates in denominations of $1 and $5 are available for the purpose in the stores and super markets of A&P stores in the 37 states where the chain operates.

Officials explained that the certificates are the company's response to a growing demand by firms and individuals for a food gift plan similar to those offered by department and clothing stores during the Christmas season.

The certificates are redeemable in any A&P store. For example, a shopper in Providence, R. I., could use a certificate purchased in a Los Angeles A&P store for a choice of like value from among a super market's 3,500 items of merchandise.

Antioch High School Students Give Money And Canned Food to Worthy Institutions

Students of the Antioch Township High school contributed canned goods to the Student Council yesterday which in turn packed four boxes, one of which was sent to each of four worthy recipients.

Those who received them were the Central Baptist Children's home at Lake Villa; Lincoln Children's home at Lincoln, Ill.; a needy family at Deer Lodge, Tenn.; and the Soldier's and Sailors' Children's home at Normal, Ill.

Twenty dollar contributions were sent to each of the following: CARE, Chicago; Cerebral Palsy fund, Chicago; St. Vincent's Orphanage, Chicago; and School for Retarded Children, Waukegan.

The gifts were contributed during the Christmas assembly period in which the Student Council and the Music department furnished and supervised the program. The program comprised the following:

Richard Moran, Trevor, Dies Wednesday; Result of Automobile Accident

Richard (Dick) Moran, 62, of route 83, one mile north of Antioch, died Wednesday, December 21, at 11:15 p. m. in Victory Memorial hospital, Waukegan, where he was taken after a car accident at Rtes. 173 and 41 earlier in the day. The accident occurred when Moran was making a left turn onto rte. 173 to come to Antioch.

He was accompanied by a brother, William, of 123 N. Genesee st., Waukegan, who was also injured in the crash, and is in Victory Memorial hospital.

Richard, owner of the Fairway grill, who was driving, made a left turn going north from Skokie hwy. (Rte. 41) onto 173 and was struck broadside by the southbound car of Edward J. Campbell, 21, of 6314 S. Koffen st., Chicago. Campbell had a green light signal, according to Albert Dagit, state patrolman.

The Moran brothers after receiving first aid from the Antioch Rescue squad, were taken in the Cogdon (Zion) ambulance to Victory Memorial hospital where Richard was said to have a neck injury and William had rib fractures and face lacerations.

Campbell was but little injured, but said he would have a physical checkup at Great Lakes Naval Training station where he is employed.

Moran had previously suffered a fractured neck, as a result of an accident some years ago, and it is thought that this previous accident contributed to his death, since a neck injury was responsible.

He was born in Shields township April 16, 1893, and moved to Waukegan in 1916, and finally to Trevor in 1923. He has been owner of the Fairway Grill on route 83 for the past twenty years.

Besides his wife, Agnes, he leaves three brothers, William, Joseph, and Thomas, all of Waukegan, and two sisters, Mrs. Lottie Meier, Waukegan, and Sister Mary Clarita, Providence Order, Jasper, Indiana.

Funeral services have been set for 2 o'clock Monday, December 26 at the Holy Name church, Wilmet, Wis. Interment will be in Ascension cemetery, Libertyville.

Friends may call at the Strang funeral home after 7 p. m. Saturday.

Antioch High to Play at Dundee Tonight; Fenton, Glenbrook Win

A non-conference game at Dundee will wind up the Antioch Township High School basketball schedule until after the return of the students from their holiday vacation and then it will be Palatine here.

The Sequoias lost by a wide margin to the strong Glenbrook team here Friday night and were nosed out 67 to 73 by Fenton at Bensenville Saturday night.

Personal fouls proved the undoing of Antioch at Bensenville. The Sequoias fell behind 30 to 25 at the half, but in unleashing a full court press in the third quarter and moving into a 49-42 lead with a 24-point barrage, Antioch acquired so many fouls that Gerry Huml, Frank Walsh, Al Reckers and Jim Fish all went to the bench with four personals.

Their absence from the game gave the Bisons the opportunity to gain a 54-49 advantage. Their return closed up the gap, but with 29 seconds to go Walsh and Fish received their fifth fouls which not only gave Fenton the free throws but permitting a field basket from the rebound.

Reckers led in the Antioch scoring with 19 points and Johnson for the Bisons with 25 points.

Glenbrook 71, Antioch 41

It was a nip and tuck game Friday night between the Glenbrook Spartans and Antioch during the first quarter and Antioch actually led at the beginning of the second quarter 12 to 9, but then came the deluge and by intermission the visitors were ahead 33-19.

Fast breaking Bob Boyd and Jim Sawyers of the Spartans continued their bombardment of the basket during the second half and the Sequoias were unable to effect a rally.

Reckers and Fish shared honors for Antioch as high point men with 13 points each while for the victors Boyd with 25 points and Spalding with 20 points were high men.

Baptist Church at Lake Villa Partly Complete; Basement Put Into Use

The basement of the new Baptist Bible church at Lake Villa is now complete and was put into use this week, when the first services were held Sunday, Dec. 18. The new building, being built at Cedar Lake road and Highland Terrace, will be large enough to accommodate the entire congregation. Up until now the services were being held at the Lake Villa village hall and at the Progressive club clubhouse.

Sunday services will be held at the new building at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. each Sunday with the Rev. William Franks, of Lake Geneva in charge.

The annual Christmas program of the Sunday school will be held on Friday, Dec. 23, and all parents and friends are invited.

It was announced today that Representative W. J. Murphy will seek re-election as the Republican nominee to the office of State Representative to the general assembly in the newly organized 31st Representative District.

In making his announcement he called attention to the fact that due to the re-apportionment, McHenry and Boone counties are no longer a part of this district, and that Lake county is now a district by itself and is called the 31st Representative district. This will entitle Lake county to elect three representatives to the general assembly, in addition to the senator—who still will retain the counties of McHenry, Boone and Lake in his district—now called the 52nd Senatorial district.

Murphy is well known in Lake county for his many years of civic service. Prior to his election in 1954, he had served several terms as president of his local school board, Lions Club, the Lake County Real Estate board, Illinois Sportsmen association and others. He was also an officer in the Chamber of Commerce, fire department, township chairman of Red Cross drive, Victory Memorial Hospital Fund Drive, Boy Scout drive and others.

Mr. Murphy was born in Sioux City, Iowa, in 1915, and has been a

Ford Foundation Gift To Condell Hospital Will Not Alter Drive

A news release from E. Grant Linney, president of the Condell hospital organization, Libertyville, announces a gift from the Ford Foundation. The following announcement explains that although the gift is very welcome, it cannot be used for the same purposes that the funds derived from the coming drive are to be used:

"The directors of Condell hospital are very pleased with the announcement of the gift from the Ford Foundation, but the requirements state that the money must be used for future expansion, replacement of old or worn out items in the hospital or purchase of new equipment. Thus we are unable to use this grant for the purpose of paying for the maternity wing, which is the sole purpose of the drive to be held in January of the hospital. Therefore the goal of this drive will not be lowered or helped through the gift from the Ford Foundation."

Temperature Abnormally Low as Winter Sets in At Year's Shortest Day

Today is the shortest day of the year—daylight hours considered and tomorrow the sun will slowly start its way back north, and calendar winter will begin.

This may be some consolation in view of the fact that there has been an abnormally cold winter so far. December is more than 100 degrees below normal and the month isn't over. Yesterday was the mildest day in approximately two weeks.

Cooperative Weather Observer Roy Kufalk said that there have been three days with temperatures at or below zero this month. The coldest was 3 degrees below zero Monday.

Local residents while envying friends down in the southern part of Florida because of their mild temperature, can take consolation over the fact they aren't up around Bemiji, Minn., where the temperature was 30 and 35 degrees below zero.

There is an old saying that "As the days begin to lengthen, the cold begins to strengthen." If this is true Antioch is in for some more sub-zero weather.

And aren't the fuel men smiling these days.

Mundelein Protests I. C. C.'s Hearing on Waukegan Shopper Bus

Mundelein's village board joined Antioch's board in protesting to the Illinois Commerce Commission on the hearing of a Waukegan petition for a weekly bus service between points in Lake county now served by a free bus. A fare would be charged.

Mayor John Noel told the trustees that he had received no notice of the hearing in Chicago and instructed the clerk to write to the I.C.C. protesting the hearing without first having notified those villages concerned.

The mayor threatened to refuse to allow the buses to enter the village without a license. Libertyville and Fox Lake have taken no action as yet.

Double Holiday for Christmas Celebration Extends Yuletide Plans

Church Services Saturday Evening and Sunday; Stores Closed Mon.

Two more days of rush to do the last minute shopping and prepare food for the greatest of all holidays and then ... Christmas.

Christmas will be a two-day event this year. First there will be the calendar date which this year falls on Sunday.

Sunday, a Holy Day itself, takes on added significance this year as churches celebrate the birth of the Christ who gave them existence.

Monday will be a legal holiday in which for the most part there will be no business operations. It will be a much needed rest day for business men and clerks who have served extra hours in the last two weeks to expedite shopping. Most stores will close at 5:30 p. m. Saturday to permit employees to join their families in their Christmas eve celebration.

Services are offered Christmas eve for worshippers by the local churches.

There will be a candlelight service of worship at 11 p. m. Saturday at the Methodist church in Antioch. The service will consist of readings from the Bible, Christmas music by the choir and congregation, and a brief play, "Life Is a Feast," directed by Robert Lindblad.

Families of the church have been given a Christmas candle and service of worship to be used in the home at the evening meal on Christmas eve. These were prepared by the high school Methodist Youth Fellowship.

The Rev. Mr. Howard Benson, pastor of the church, will preach the Christmas sermon at 11 a. m. Sunday Scripture readings suggested for the day are Luke 2:1-20, John 1:1-14, and Galatians 4:1-7.

Services at St. Peter's Solemn mass will be conducted at midnight at St. Peter's Catholic church, Christmas eve. Other masses will be at 6, 7:30, 9, 10 and 11 a. m. Sunday. Confessions will be at 3 to 5:30 and 7 to 9 p. m. Saturday.

Music for the midnight mass will be sung by the choir under the direction of Mrs. A. J. McGreal. Servers at this service will be Gerald Horton, Michael Haley, Gary Stollenwerk, Kenneth Stepien, Lawrence Lang, and Jack Wells. Servers at the Sunday services will be:

1 a. m.—Ralph Eckert and Paul Yancey; 6 a. m.—Peter Zeilen and Melvin Cernak; 7:30 a. m.—Ran Runyard and Patrick Sullivan; 9 a. m.—Thomas Konitzer and Dennis Johnson; 10 a. m.—Richard Gudgeon and Brian Cranley; 11 a. m.—Raymond Chinn and Dean Horton.

Ohioans Speak at the Polls

There is a legal phase to the contracts reached between the CIO Auto Workers Union and the major auto producers which call for a guaranteed annual wage in modified form, and which are widely believed to be a pattern for future demands on other industries. The contracts require that GAW payments be legally permitted to supplement state unemployment payments in order to make up the benefits.

Approval was given in a number of states, where that could be done by administrative action. In the highly industrialized state of Ohio, however, it had to come before the voters. On November 8th the vote was cast—and the result was a decisive NO. In Ohio's principal industrial areas, the enabling law was rejected by almost two to one.

It is believed that a go-ahead can be obtained in enough other states to make the contracts operable. That, however, will not cancel out this significant example of public opinion. A large majority of Ohioans said, in effect, that they were against using unemployment funds, collected from all employers and employees, to provide a facsimile of a guaranteed wage to special groups. There may be a handwriting on the wall in this.

Grass Roots Opinion

ANGOLA, IND., REPUBLICAN: "Our educational problem is two-pronged: a lack of proper classroom space and a shortage of teachers. . . . The Federal government is now taking about one-third of people's income and returning to the local communities a small fraction at a great cost in the charge of handling. If the Federal government should return to the states certain areas of taxation or certain percentage of income taxes collected, the state, under local supervision, could meet the tremendous problem confronting it."

CHELSEA FALLS, WASH., MIRROR: "Certainly now, with the merger of CIO and AFL—with all the unions except John Lewis' UMW and a few independents rolled into one super labor combine—we have . . . as dangerous a trust as this nation has ever seen."

UNIONVILLE, MO., REPUBLICAN: "It is no safer to our form of government and our liberty in America to have a government dominated and controlled by labor than it is to have it dominated and controlled by capital. In either case we have an oligarchy, and the people lose their freedom and are plundered in the interest of one segment of our society, because ruthless and selfish men always manage to seize the reins."

Who Benefits Most?

Who benefits most from the operation of American industry—that, is, from capitalism?

A report from the American Economic Foundation is revealing. During the last 25 years for which figures are available, the payrolls of our corporations came to $1,516,211,000,000. The dividends paid to the owners of the corporations, whose savings and investments made the payrolls possible, totaled less than one-tenth as much.

In 1850, the share of the national income represented by salaries and wages was about 36 per cent. Now it is about 70 per cent—practically double.

Capitalism has done more good things for more people than any other economic system ever devised.

The Low Down From Hickory Grove

You know, now and then, as you stay home for the evening and you pick up a paper and see right there in bold and dark type the billions that your Sambo owes, it perchance gives you a qualm in the pit of the stomach. That all-gone feeling is the result of a 20 year build-up of "do-everything" Govt. But the sudden qualm is not beyond reach of the doctor—and every person can be his own M. D. of finance.

We been asking for too much from Govt. Just ask for less—it is that easy. Don't be a sucker for the flamboyant congressman or senator who wants to get your town a new fur-lined swimming-pool. Also don't be enough of a yokel to ask for same in the first place. Also don't fall for the notion that Govt. ownership or State or Town ownership is not undermining a free America. Tax exempt projects are a main culprit—a major cause for that nausea you been feeling—doubt about manana and how will little Georgie and little Petunia fare as they grow up.

On my trusty slide rule it says you are donating the projects money in the first place and now in the second place, paying interest on same, or a reasonable facsimile of such, via having to make up for the added taxes that the exempt projects do not pay. No wonder there is a flutter in our midriff section.

Yours with the low down,

JO SERRA

Silent Partner

The business-managed utility companies of this country have a silent partner—the tax collector. That is the point of an article by Sidney P. Allen, financial editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, appearing in a recent issue of Public Utilities Fortnightly.

Mr. Allen used as an example four of the largest California utilities—one a telephone company, the other three providers of electric and gas service. In the case of the phone company, taxes have been the largest single classification of expense for years, barring wages. In the case of the power companies, taxes have been the largest item barring nothing!

Mr. Allen feels that the tax load on the utilities and their customers is too heavy. That argument to one side, this tax situation should cause same serious public thinking whenever it is proposed that the government go still deeper into the power business on a socialized, tax-subsidized basis. The experience of the California companies is not in any way unusual—it is typical. On a national average, the power companies pay well over 20 per cent of all their revenue in taxes. Socialized systems either pay no taxes at all, or relatively small contributions in lieu of taxes. And socialized systems receive many other costly subsidies at the taxpayers' expense, while being exempted from general tax laws.

Socialism eats away our financial resources—even as it prevents the creation of new sources of taxation. More important, it undermines the system on which free and representative government itself rests.

Tips on Traffic Safety

Recently, the newspapers were filled with the tragic tales of runaway vehicles which took a heavy casualty toll. The episodes bring to mind the proper way of parking a vehicle when it is on a grade.

After maneuvering the auto into the desired position, the motorist should turn the front wheels so that the right front wheel is in against the curb if the car is facing downhill. If pointed uphill the front wheels should be turned out toward the center of the road with the back of the right front wheel against the curb.

The hand brake should be firmly applied before the motorist alights from the vehicle. Also, the ignition key should never be left in a parked car as it can only lead to trouble. Youngsters, for instance, have been known to be inquisitive about the workings of an auto and one can readily imagine the danger if a child is playing in a car with the ignition key in place. Also, statistics show that a large number of stolen vehicles were taken because the ignition key was left in the car. A free copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" booklet will be sent to you free upon request. Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois.

Humidity Too Low In Average Home, Experts Report

CLEVELAND—The sweltering, over-hot humidity of summertime is always well remembered. The equally uncomfortable condition of too low humidity in the home during winter is seldom recognized, however.

It is a surprising fact, but the experts say that the average humidity in most homes during the winter months is less than that present in the Sahara Desert in summer and the home might just as well be right in the middle of the desert!

This is the reason, they say, that many household objects dry out in the wintertime. This "thirsty" air tries to supplement its moisture deficiency by taking moisture from walls, furniture, plants, books, woodwork, rugs, draperies, and even from occupants.

The reasons for the absence of moisture in the air of the home are these: The colder the air is, the less moisture it can hold. Cold outside air in the winter can hold only a small quantity of moisture, even when nearly saturated.

This cold, dry air leaks into the house at the rate of from 1/2 to 1 1/2 house volumes per hour, depending on how tightly the structure of the house is built. The air on entering the house is heated and becomes capable of holding a much greater amount of moisture. This makes it "thirsty" air, and it will soak up moisture off of every object in the house.

Proper humidity in any home may be obtained by addition of a humidifier to the present heating system.

Tough Customer Is Heart Muscle

NEW ORLEANS—How tough is the heart muscle?

Considerable reserve strength was found in the heart muscle of experimental animals given stress tests after induced "heart attacks," according to research reported by Dr. Thomas N. P. Johns and Bryon J. Olson of the National Institutes of Health.

First, the investigators reported, they developed a method for producing standardized and sizeable areas of heart and muscle damage in rats and other small experimental animals by tying off a main coronary artery with surgical silk. This created a situation parallel (but not necessarily comparable) to a heart attack, technically a coronary occlusion or coronary thrombosis.

Next the animals were subjected to different types of exercise at various times following the occlusion. Approximately 400 animals were used, including a controls group whose chests were opened but whose arteries were not tied off.

Exercise during the first six hours following coronary occlusion produced a significantly higher mortality in the experimental rats, the scientists found. But after this "shock period" had passed there was "no significant difference in exercise tolerance" between the rats with the damaged hearts and the rats in the control group.

Atomic Guards Ordered To "Shoot to Kill"

CAMP HANFORD, Wash. — Orders of "shoot to kill" were issued to soldiers guarding the Hanford atomic works from an elusive enemy that has been nibbling at the roots of the supersecret installation.

One man in each battery of the anti-aircraft group was issued a .22 caliber rifle and told to keep shooting until the enemy is destroyed.

The highly-mobile intruder is commonly known as the "jackrabbit"—in fact there were hundreds of jackrabbits when the order was issued. The bunnies nibbled the post's 100,000 rose bushes down to 10,000 and chewed away most of Hanford's grass and shrubs.

Expectant Father Lost In Rush to Hospital

DETROIT—Charles Birchfield was driving along hurriedly when he spotted two rookie policemen walking toward him. Screeching to a stop, he shouted excitedly that his wife, Opal, was about to have a baby in the back seat of the auto. Patrolman Edward Krajewski quickly slid behind the wheel. His companion, Patrolman Gaylord Golding got in the back seat to assist the expectant mother. Then they sped off—leaving the prospective father stranded on a curb. Mrs. Birchfield got to the hospital ahead of the stork.

Bad Bill

MIAMI, Fla.—B. M. Funderburk received a letter from a non-existent local firm notifying him payment was due on a note he didn't owe. He was puzzled until he looked at the postmark. It read Dec. 10, 1940.

Funderburk then remembered that he had paid off the note 15 years ago and the firm went out of business a short time afterwards.

No Machine Yet Outstrips Man's Remarkable Brain

WASHINGTON—Can there be an artificial brain?

Perhaps, some day—at least on paper—but it will be far different from any of the marvelous machines now in existence, says Dr. D. M. MacKay of the University of London.

These machines may be perfected more and more to take over various functions now carried out by the brain—perhaps, as even now is the case, better than the brain itself. But the true model of the brain, Dr. MacKay says, must be constructed that it can grow, profit by its own experience, can make mistakes, and by the consequences of them be conditioned not to make them again, can even suffer mental breakdowns—in the same way and on the same principles as the human brain.

Already, Dr. MacKay believes, it is possible to design an artificial brain that will incorporate in itself patterns due to its own internal and external experiences. There is, in fact, one possible statistical model which he thinks might usefully stand comparison with the human brain.

"The basic feature of this model," Dr. MacKay says, "is the ability to adjust the rules of its own activity according to the degree of success it attains. It does this not by throwing switches but by adjusting the relative probabilities of different patterns of activity. Its rules are grown statistically as a result of its own trials and errors."

Being Bright Pays Well in College

NEW BRUNSWICK—Does it pay to be bright in college?

Consider the "plight" of 37 young men in the freshman class at Rutgers University's men's colleges. Because they have exceptional minds and unusual foresight, these lads will spend an extra year in college.

Their intelligence will pay off in big dividends for they comprise the first full-scale class to enroll in Rutgers unique five-year program that leads to two degrees. Yes, two degrees! When they graduate in 1960—though they are at present members of the class of 1959—each will receive a degree of Bachelor of Science from the College of Engineering and a Bachelor of Arts degree from the College of Arts and Sciences.

The new Rutgers program is unique in that courses in the liberal arts and engineering fields are taken side by side through five years. Other institutions have somewhat similar programs, but they require a student to spend three years in a liberal arts college and then switch to engineering for two years.

Navy Won't Commission Any Male Nurses

WASHINGTON—There's a ditto about the soldier who wouldn't trade his "O.D.'s" for Navy "dun-garees" and the Navy says it won't follow the Army lead in giving commissions to male nurses. In the foreseeable future, the Navy indicates, it will continue to give commissions only to women in the Nurse Corps.

The Navy thus disagrees with the Army which started commissioning male nurses in accordance with a law sponsored by Rep. Frances P. Bolton, (R., Ohio).

A Navy spokesman pointed out that the Bolton law does not require it to put men into the Nurse Corps. Anyway, he added, the Navy has no need to hire male nurses to go into battlefield, as does the Army.

Pose as Wife's Lover Brings Jail Sentence

READING, England—Four years in jail was the sentence for a married man, Montague Harris, 32, who posed as his wife's lover.

Harris admitted playing the dual role of husband and correspondent in an attempt to fake evidence so he could get a divorce and marry another woman.

He pleaded guilty to 10 charges of forgery and perjury arising out of the case.

Police said Harris hired another woman to play the part of his wife, donned a false mustache as the "correspondent" and went off to stay at a country hotel with her.

Later, without his real wife's knowing about it, he used to fake evidence to accuse her of "adultery." He got a divorce and remarried.

Sour Saki, Maybe?

TOKYO—Them revenooers, foe of moonshiners for ages in the United States, have now turned up in Japan. They are Japanese, but operate like the U. S. type—stalking through the hills north of Tokyo seeking out stills.

Japan's Tax Administration Board says hunting should be pretty good, since it is estimated a million stills are bubbling away in Japan.

QUICK MIX FOR CHRISTMAS... COOKIES BY THE DOZEN

Crisp, crunchy, and delicious, cookies of all varieties have been saying "Merry Christmas" for generations... in gift boxes, at parties and open houses, and even as decorations on trees and tables. Christmas cookies are easy and fun to make, too, with ready-to-use prepared cookie mixes. Because there's no sifting to do, even the children can mix up their favorites with a minimum of mess. Drop cookies, rolled cookies, brownies, date bars, ginger snaps... any of them can be made from a handy one-batch package. Pinwheel Cookies, for example, are pretty enough for the fanciest gift box, yet are as easy as this:

Pinwheel Cookies

1 package Flako cookie mix
2 tablespoons water, milk, or other liquid
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons cocoa
Empty contents of package into bowl; add liquid and vanilla, and blend. Add cocoa to half of dough and blend. Roll out light and dark doughs separately between waxed paper into rectangular shape, 1/4 inch thick. Place dark dough on light dough and roll up tightly. Wrap in waxed paper and chill several hours. Slice 1/4 inch thick and place on ungreased cookie sheet. Bake at 375° (mod. oven) 8 to 12 minutes. Makes 3 dozen cookies.

How lasting peace and harmony may be gained through steadfast trust in God's goodness and power will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday, January 1.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "God" will consist of readings from the King James Version of the Bible and correlative selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science.

Isaiah's promise of peace for those who rely on God is included in the Scriptural readings (28:3): "Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee."

Also emphasizing the availability of God-given harmony and goodness are correlative passages to be read from Science and Health including the following (615:22): "All that God imparts moves in accord with Him, reflecting goodness and power."

TO LOOK YOUR BEST— Hands Are Important

Holiday time is party time... time to look glamorous, feel attractive. And one of the most important attributes of a lovely woman is her smooth, graceful hands. Make sure your hands are really an asset by regularly applying fragrant, oil-rich Trushay hand lotion. Trushay combats chapping and helps prevent roughness, keeping your hands soft and supple.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By
CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

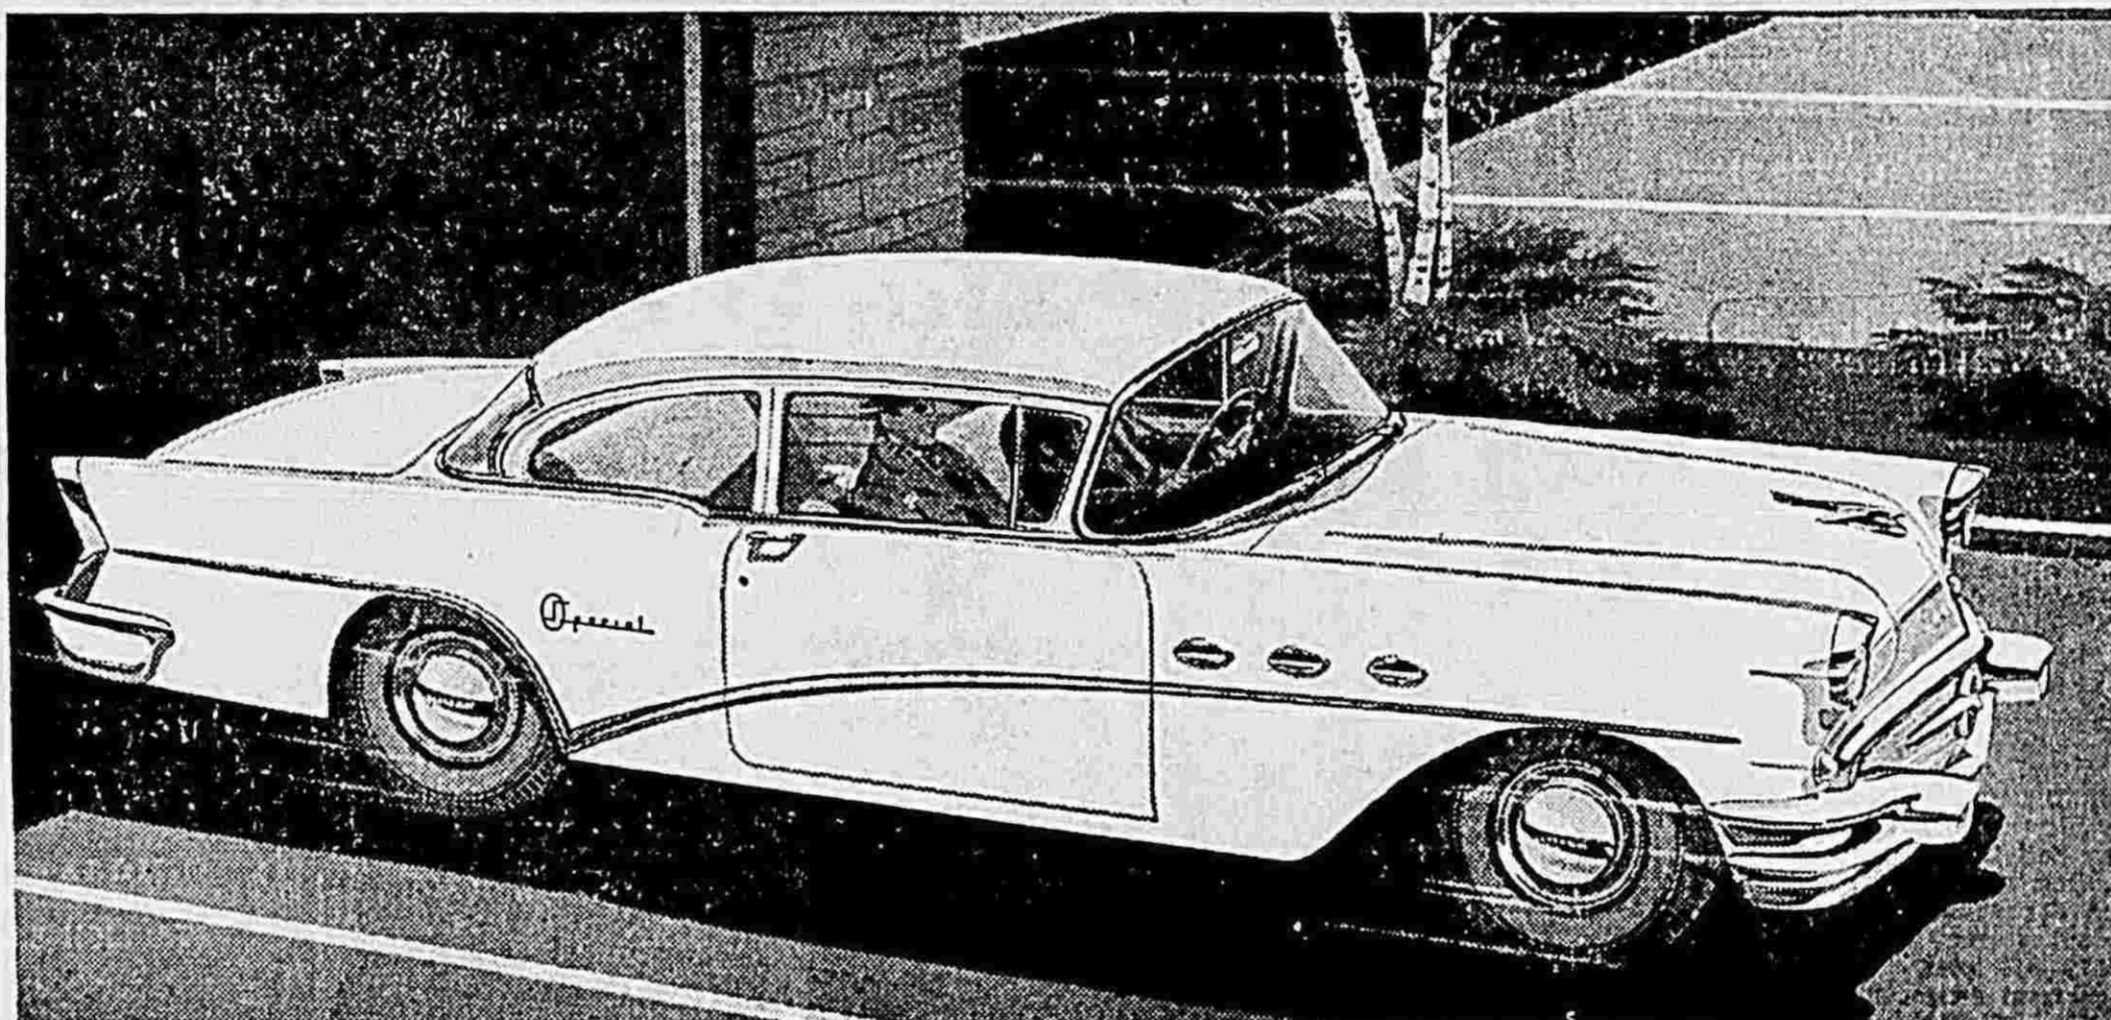

One of the most tragic accidents that occurs is when a child does not heed a traffic signal or dashes out into the street from behind a parked car and is struck by a vehicle. Even the most cautious driver innocently hits the small fry who, without warning, dashes in front of his auto.

Every conscientious driver is on the alert for just such an occurrence when driving in a residential section or when driving near a school. But a driver's caution is not enough when a carefree youngster decides to cross the street "right now."

There is only one way to end these tragic accidents. And that is for the parents to completely educate the youngsters to the dangers they face by not crossing at intersections. The children should also be taught to obey traffic signals. And, further, they should understand that they must look both ways before crossing the street even if the traffic signal gives them the go-ahead.

Only by thoroughly educating the youngsters can we hope to save them from serious injury or death. A copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" booklet will be sent to you free upon request. Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois.

That's right — you can buy a '56 Buick

delivered locally!

*2-door, 6-passenger Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48, illustrated. Any state and local taxes, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. A wide variety of extra-cost equipment and accessories available at your option.

This one has moved a lot of folks to change their buying habits. For this strapping sweep of car is a Buick SPECIAL—solid Buick through and through, and sedan-big for six adults. Yet the dollar difference between this beauty and the well-known smaller cars can be sifted down to a pocketful of pennies. (Actually, this Buick costs less than some models of those very same cars—as the price we show here proves.)

But the difference in brawn and breadth and fun and thrill—that's the clincher for the move to Buick...

Because here, folks find, is so much more sheer automobile for the money—big-car power, big-car ride, big-car performance and big-car room at a small-car price.

It comes from new, record-high power—from a big new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine, the same basic engine that powers the costlier Buicks.

It comes from a new Buick ride—backboned by Buick heft, sinewed by stout steel, leveled by all-coil springing, cushioned by triple-oil-volume shock absorbers.

It comes from a new and advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo that brings you brilliant new getaway response and bigger gas mileage in your normal driving range—plus sizzling new full-power safety-surge when you floor the pedal and switch the pitch.

And it comes, of course, from Buick size and solidity and steadiness—and all dressed up in Buick's new sweep-ahead style.

So why not come in and try one on for size?

Drop in this week and borrow a key. What happens from that point on is pure thrill—aided and abetted by low prices that make this the best buy yet.

†New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Deck A Pie With Holly, Too!

Family home for the Holidays! Such joy for Mother to welcome her grown-up youngsters with their favorite foods, all dressed up for Christmas. But with time at a premium it's sensible to learn some "quick tricks."

And right here is a "quick" pie—quick from the flaked-coconut crust to holly decoration... yet it can claim the distinction of being a holiday dessert because of its seasonal colors and garnishes. And, for a special treat, nest the gay filling in a glamorous quick coconut crust... a sure hit with the pie participants.

For added flavor, try the new flake-style coconut.

COCONUT CRUSTED NESSELRODE PIE

2 tablespoons soft butter
1½ cups new flaked coconut
1 package vanilla pudding and pie filling mix
2 teaspoons gelatin
Dash of salt
2 cups milk

1 egg yolk
1 egg white
2 tablespoons sugar
¼ cup cream, whipped
2 tablespoons chopped maraschino cherries (half red, half green)
¼ teaspoon rum extract (optional)

Crust: Spread butter evenly on bottom and sides of 9-inch pan. Sprinkle coconut in pan, pressing evenly into the butter. Bake in slow oven (300°F.). 15 to 20 minutes, or until golden brown. Cool.

Filling: Combine pie filling mix, gelatin, salt and ¼ cup milk in saucepan. Add egg yolk and blend well. Add remaining 1½ cups milk. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil. Remove from heat.

Beat egg white until foamy throughout. Add sugar, a tablespoon at a time, and continue beating until meringue will stand in peaks. Fold in hot filling gradually. Chill, stirring occasionally. Fold in whipped cream, cherries, and rum extract, if desired. Pour into cooled coconut crust. Chill until firm. Garnish with whipped cream and a holly design made of cherry halves and leaves cut from citron.

Two things that make for SAFER driving!

The first and most important thing is you—the driver. As the highway safety organizations and law enforcement agencies point out, the courtesy, care, and common sense you show count more than anything else. You can drive any car safely — or foolishly.

The second thing is the car itself. All cars are safer today. That's shown by the number of accidents in relation to the number of miles passenger cars are driven. The figure's been going down steadily and sharply.

Chevrolet engineers and designers have always made your safety a major consideration, introducing many such features as the all-steel top, safety plate glass all around, and windshield-wide defrosters into the low-price field. And this '56 Chevrolet is the safest one ever built.

Its lively new power means safer passing. Its special Ball-Race steering—the oversize brakes with Anti-Dive control—the Unisteel construction and safety door latches of its Fisher Body—the nailed-to-the-road stability that comes from outrigger rear springs, an advanced suspension system and better balance—the sweeping panoramic windshield — all these things add to your safety.

Seat belts with or without shoulder harness? Instrument panel padding? Of course, they're available at extra cost on your new Chevrolet. But the best protection of all is to keep out of accidents in the first place. And that depends mostly on you and the built-in safety of your car.

As your Chevrolet dealer, we'll be glad to show you the many safety features of the '56 Chevrolet.

"Bill" Murphy....

resident of Lake county for the past 24 years. He makes his home on the Chain-O-Lakes at Antioch, Ill., with his wife, Virginia, and three sons, Billy, age 11, Jerry, age 8, and Bobby, age 6. He calls the boys his Lobby of Three and says they have more influence on him for good government than any other lobby in Springfield.

Murphy is engaged in the real estate and insurance business and is also a vice-president and one of the founders of the First State Bank of Round Lake. He is a member of the American Legion, the Moose, Elks and Eagles.

In announcing that he is a nominee for re-election to the general assembly, Murphy stated, "Serving this district in the last general assembly was the greatest privilege and experience of my life. I tried at all times to represent the people of this northern district as they indicated they wanted to be represented. I worked for efficiency in government and resisted all moves to centralize government. My vote

The night before Harold Cardiff turned his restaurant (Cardiff's) over to the new owner he entertained the basketball squad of Antioch Township. was against tax increases as it is my belief that we are in greater danger from collapse from within due to over-taxation than from armed invasion. If returned to the general assembly, I will continue to fight for Home Rule—Efficiency in Government—and Curbing of Tax Increase. I have enjoyed representing you in Springfield and will very much appreciate the privilege of serving you in the next session. I respectfully ask the support of all you good people of Lake county in the Republican primary election on April 10, 1956."

FIND THE TRUE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS BY ATTENDING THE CHURCH OF YOUR FAITH

Centuries ago a child was born in the humblest stable in Bethlehem. The Child was the Son of God, and He brought to mankind a new spirit of love and forgiveness and the promise of eternal life. Let us remember that Christmas is the celebration of His birth. Let us find the true meaning of the day by attending church at Christmastime.
